

Contents

Introduction: Feminised Labour Migration in the Context of Globalisation	3
1. Exploitative Terms of Work – Pay, Hours and Contracts	6
Responding with Human Rights Treaties	8
What the Treaties Say on Exploitative Terms of Work	9
Selected Concluding Comments and Observations	11
2. Locked in the Home – Restrictions on the Freedom of Movement	13
Responding with Human Rights Treaties	15
What the Treaties Say on Restrictions to the Freedom of Movement	16
Selected Concluding Comments and Observations	17
3. Labour Market Discrimination Against Women – at Home and Abroad	19
Responding with Human Rights Treaties	21
What the Treaties Say on Discrimination in the Workplace	22
Selected Concluding Comments and Observations	23
4. Dangerous and Degrading Working Conditions – Safety and Health	25
Responding with Human Rights Treaties	26
What the Treaties Say on Workplace Safety	27
Selected Concluding Comments and Observations	29
5. Gender-Based Violence in the Workplace	30
Responding with Human Rights Treaties	31
What the Treaties Say on Gender-based Violence	32
Selected Concluding Comments and Observations	33
6. Gendered forms of Racism and Xenophobia Against Women Migrant Workers	35
Responding with Human Rights Treaties	36
What the Treaties Say on Racism and Xenophobia	37
Selected Concluding Comments and Observations	39
7. Restrictions on Migrant Women's Ability to Organize for their Rights	42
Responding with Human Rights Treaties	43
What the Treaties Say on Restrictions on the Right to Organize	44
Selected Concluding Comments and Observations	46
End Notes	48

ACC NO.
DATE RECEIVED
CALL NO.