

TABLE OF CONTENTS

FOREWORD	III
LIST OF BOXES AND PANELS	VI
LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS	VII
OVERVIEW	VIII
INTRODUCTION	XXV
CHAPTER 1 From abstract concept to practical action	1
CEDAW gains traction in Southeast Asia	3
From awareness to practical action: Government approaches	4
From awareness to practical action: NGO advocacy and outreach	17
CHAPTER 2 Enhancing legal frameworks and justice systems	47
CEDAW and the law: Protecting and promoting women's rights through legal reform	48
Implementing CEDAW: The role of the justice system	70
The Optional Protocol to CEDAW	78
CHAPTER 3 Strengthening accountability: The reporting process as catalyst	87
Preparing the state report	89
Preparing for the CEDAW Committee Session	96
Valuable voices from the ground—NGOs and CEDAW reporting	101
Stimulating government-civil society collaboration	110
CHAPTER 4 Building capacity and national ownership	113
Expanding national knowledge and expertise	114
Successful approaches to building sustainable capacity and ownership: Training, mentoring and learning-by-doing	116
Development of local resource materials	128
Institutionalizing CEDAW in national institutions of learning	130
CONCLUSION	137
APPENDIX: List of organizations appearing in the publication	147