

Table of Contents

Executive Summary

Chapter I: Introduction

1.1 Definitions	5
1.1.1 The Convention on the Worst Forms of Child Labour	5
1.1.2 Trafficking	6
1.1.3 Target Groups	6
1.2 Background	6
1.3 Structure of this Report	7

Chapter II: Background Information from the Literature – Child Labour in Thailand

2.1 Decreasing Numbers of Ethnic Thai Child Workers	9
2.2 Minors From Lao PDR Working in Thailand	9
2.3 Minors from Myanmar Working in Thailand	10
2.4 Sectors of Child Labour	10
2.5 Foreign and Ethnic Minority Child Workers	11

Chapter III: Methodology

3.1 Rapid Assessment	13
3.2 Child Respondents	13
3.3 Gender, Ethnicity and Legal Status	14
3.4 Key and Other Informants	15
3.5 Research Approaches	15
3.6 This Research and its Limitations	16
3.6.1 Strength of the Methodology	16
3.6.2 To What Extent Can We Draw General Conclusions from this Study?	16
3.6.3 Where does this Study Shows Specific and Not General Results	16
3.6.4 Recruitment and Transportation Systems	17
3.6.5 Source Communities	17
3.6.6 Change Over Time	17
3.7 Possibilities for Future Research	17

Chapter IV: Origins of Trafficking and Risk Groups

4.1 Why Do Minors Leave Their Village to Work in Thailand?	19
4.1.1 Financial Motivation	19
4.1.2 Lack of Purchasing Power	19
4.1.3 Lack of Job Opportunities and Educational Attainments	20
4.1.4 Parents' Role in the Decision to Leave	20
4.1.5 Trafficking and Household Decisions	21
4.1.6 Following Others, Seeing the World and Experiencing Life	23

4.1.7 Personal Problems and Difficulties in the Community	24
4.1.8 Oppressed Communities	25
4.2 Risk Groups	25
4.2.1 Hill Tribes From Thailand	25
4.2.2 Refugees and Displaced Persons	26
4.2.3 Stateless Persons	26
4.2.4 Laotians	26
4.2.5 Minors From Myanmar	27

Chapter V: Transportation into Thailand

5.1 Information About Work	29
5.2 Initiative and Decision to Seek Work	29
5.3 Organizers of Transportation into Thailand	30
5.4 Means of Transport	31
5.5 Entry into Thailand	31
5.6 The Special Border Zones	32
5.7 Immigration Policies and the Movement of Minors	32

Chapter VI: Recruitment into the Worst Forms of Child Labour

6.1.1 Immediate Entry into the Worst Forms of Child Labour	37
6.1.2 Delayed Entry into the Worst Forms of Child Labour	37
6.1.3 Information Obtained in Thailand About Work	38
6.1.4 Getting into Work	38
6.2 Profit Made From the Recruitment Process	38
6.3 Awareness and Deception	40
6.4 Networking and the Danger of Trafficking	41
6.5 Ethnic Minorities and Burmans	43
6.6 Gender	44

Chapter VII: Conditions of Child Labour

7.1 Industries	47
7.2 Extent of Child Labour at the Border Sites	48
7.2.1 Factories Employing Minors in Mae Sai	48
7.2.2 The Sex Industry	50
7.2.2.1 Muk Dahan	50
7.2.2.2 Mae Sot	51
7.2.2.3 Nong Khai Province	52
7.2.2.4 Mae Sai	53
7.3 The Worst Forms of Child Labour	54
7.3.1 Slavery and Practices Similar to Slavery	54
7.3.2 Prostitution and Pornography	54
7.3.3 Illicit Activities	54

7.3.4 Work Endangering the Health, Safety or Morals of Children	55
7.3.4.1 Physical, Psychological Abuse	55
7.3.4.2 Work Underground, Under Water, at Dangerous Heights and in Confined Space	55
7.3.4.3 Work With Dangerous Machinery, Equipment and Tools	56
7.3.4.4 Manual Handling or Transport of Heavy Loads	56
7.3.4.5 Unhealthy Environment, Hazardous Substances	56
7.3.4.6 Work in Difficult Circumstances, Including Long Hours and During the Night	56
7.4 Payment	57
7.5 Assessment of the Worst Forms of Child Labour from the Minors' Perspective	57

Chapter VIII: Prospects after Trafficking into the Worst Forms of Child Labour

8.1 Continuation in Exploitative Industries	59
8.2 Ways of Leaving Employment	59
8.3 Aspirations for the Future	60
8.4 Young Adults who Consider Themselves Successful	60

Chapter IX: Conclusion

63

Annexes

67

Annex I: Findings at a Glance

67

Annex II: Questionnaire

75

Bibliography

81

For educational use and reference only