

Contents

Foreword v
Acknowledgements xi
Abbreviations xii
Introduction xiii

Section A: Understanding the CEDAW Convention and its Optional Protocol as tools to strengthen women's human rights

The CEDAW Convention 2

Text of the CEDAW Convention 2
General recommendations 3
Guiding principles 4
 Substantive equality 4
 Non-discrimination 5
 State obligation 6
The CEDAW Committee's dialogue with governments and the role of NGOs 8
The CEDAW Convention as a tool for change: Opportunities and challenges 9

The Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women (OP-CEDAW) 12

Background 12
The communications and inquiry procedures 13
 The communications procedure 14
 The inquiry procedure 17
Remedies and recommendations 20
 Under the communications procedure 20
 Under the inquiry procedure 21
 Impact 21
Administration 22
Frequently Asked Questions 23
 The communications procedure 23
 The inquiry procedure 29
 General questions 30

Handouts

- Handout 1: Understanding discrimination – Article 1 of the CEDAW Convention 33*
Handout 2: 10 things you should know about the CEDAW Convention 35
Handout 3: 10 things you should know about the CEDAW Committee 37
Handout 4: The Optional Protocol to CEDAW 39
Handout 5: Analysing women’s human rights violations through the framework of the CEDAW Convention 41
Handout 6: Communications procedure – Chart 43
Handout 7: Inquiry procedure – Chart 45
Handout 8: Sample case studies 47

Section B: Governments and the OP-CEDAW ratification process

The benefits of ratification 52

Addressing misconceptions around ratification 54

Becoming a State Party to the OP-CEDAW 59

Examples of ratification processes 61

The role of government officials and parliamentarians 63

Handout

Handout 9: Why governments should ratify or accede to the OP-CEDAW? 65

Section C: Enhancing advocacy and use of the OP-CEDAW

Overall considerations 68

Tips for NGOs on the ratification of the OP-CEDAW 69

Beyond ratification: Using the OP-CEDAW strategically 71

Pros and cons of using an international mechanism 72

Tips for NGOs on using the OP-CEDAW 73

Addressing ethical issues: Guidelines for NGOs 74

‘Our Rights Are Not Optional!’ The global campaign for the ratification and use of the OP-CEDAW 78

Handouts

- Handout 10: Tips for submitting complaints under the communications and inquiry procedures of the OP-CEDAW 81*
Handout 11: Guidelines for submissions – The communications procedure 83
Handout 12: Guidelines for submissions – The inquiry procedure 85