

ENDING THREATS AND REPRISALS AGAINST VICTIMS OF TORTURE AND RELATED INTERNATIONAL CRIMES: A CALL TO ACTION

Contents

|   |           |
|---|-----------|
| Introduction .....  | 5         |
| Part I. Identifying the Problem .....  | 9  |
| I.1 The Crimes.....   | 9         |
| I.2 The Individuals and Groups Usually in Need of Protection .....  | 11        |
| Part II. The Right of Protection .....   | 15 |
| II.1 Protection as a Right in and of Itself.....  | 16        |
| II.2 Protection as a Condition Precedent to the Realisation of other Rights .....                                 | 20        |
| a) Protection as a guarantee of the right to security of the person and the right to life .....                   | 21        |
| b) Protection as a guarantee of the right to justice.....   | 22        |
| II.3 Protection as a Remedy, i.e. As a Guarantee of Non-Repetition.....   | 26        |
| II.4 The Right to be Protected and the Rights of the Accused: Balancing Different Interests                       | 28        |
| Part III. Methods of Protection (Problem Areas and Best Practice).....                                     | 30 |
| III.1 Domestic Protection Measures.....   | 31        |
| a) National Protection Structures .....   | 32        |
| b) Protective Measures offered .....  | 36        |
| i) Efforts To Minimise Risks Through General Institutional Safeguards And Good Practice.....                      | 36        |
| ii) Responses to Identified Risks .....   | 36        |
| iii) Legal And Institutional Consequences Following A Failure To Protect .....                                    | 39        |
| c) Specific Context of Crimes Perpetrated by State Officials (Torture and Related Human rights cases).....        | 40        |
| III.2 Protection Measures Adopted by Regional and International Human Rights Bodies ...                           | 43        |
| a) Protection criteria in the exhaustion of local remedies.....   | 44        |
| b) Protection Measures Afforded by Regional and International Human Rights Bodies.....                            | 45        |
| III.3 Protection Measures Available to International Criminal Courts and Tribunals .....                          | 51        |
| a) The beneficiaries of protection.....   | 52        |
| b) How to assess risk .....   | 55        |
| c) Measures of protection.....  | 56        |
| d) Relationships with states.....   | 60        |
| e) Relationships with intergovernmental organisations and humanitarian agencies.....                              | 62        |
| f) Residual Protection Issues After the Closure of Ad Hoc or Temporary Tribunals (the 'Residual functions') ..... | 63        |

|  |           |
|--|-----------|
| Conclusions and Recommendations .....                         | 65 |
| Recommendations to States .....                                      | 66        |
| Human Rights Treaty Bodies and Courts.....                           | 68        |
| International Criminal Tribunals and Special and Hybrid Courts ..... | 69        |
| International Organisations, States and Donor Community.....         | 70        |
| Nongovernmental organisations.....                                   | 71        |

สำหรับเพื่อการศึกษาและการอ้างอิงเท่านั้น
 For educational use and reference only