

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword	i
Acknowledgements	ii
Acronyms	v
Introduction to the Handbook	vii
 SECTION A: FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES
The Basics of Gender Equality	1
What is gender?	1
Why does gender matter in crisis situations?.....	5
What is gender analysis?.....	6
Why are sex-disaggregated data important?	8
Framework for gender equality programming.....	9
Key definitions.....	12
 The International Legal Framework for Protection	 15
International Human Rights Law.....	16
International Humanitarian Law	19
International Refugee Law	20
Guiding Principles on Internal Displacement.....	21
Complementarity of IHRL, IHL and IRL.....	21
Rights-based and participatory community approaches	22
Actions to mainstream gender equality using a rights-based approach	23
 Coordination on Gender Equality in Emergencies	 27
What are the elements of effective coordination?.....	28
Terms of Reference for a Gender Network.....	29
Terms of Reference for a Gender Adviser.....	30
 Gender and Participation in Humanitarian Action	 31
Who should participate?.....	31
What is the policy on gender and participation?	32
How can we ensure effective participation?	33
What are the entry points for participation in humanitarian action?	34

SECTION B: AREAS OF WORK

Gender and Camp Coordination and Camp Management in Emergencies	41
Gender and Education in Emergencies.....	49
Gender and Food Issues in Emergencies	57
a. Gender and Food Security in Emergencies.....	59
b. Gender and Food Distribution in Emergencies.....	65
c. Gender and Nutrition in Emergencies.....	71
Gender and Health in Emergencies.....	77
Gender and Livelihoods in Emergencies	83
Gender and Non-food Items in Emergencies	89
Gender and Registration in Emergencies	93
Gender and Shelter in Emergencies.....	97
Gender and Water, Sanitation and Hygiene in Emergencies	105

สำหรับเพื่อการศึกษาและการอ้างอิงเท่านั้น
For educational use and reference only