

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ix
About the Editors xi
Contributors xiii

1. Introduction: Sexual Orientation, Gender Identity, and Schooling 1
Stephen T. Russell and Stacey S. Horn

SECTION I Victimization, Bullying, and Harassment in Schools: Current Research and Promising Practices

2. Understanding and Reducing Homophobic Harassment and Victimization in Schools 15
V. Paul Poteat
3. School Safety and Connectedness Matter for More than Educational Outcomes: The Link Between School Connectedness and Adolescent Health 39
Elizabeth Saewyc and Yuko Homma
4. Disrupting Hetero-Gender Normativity: The Complex Role of LGBT
Affirmative Supports at School 58
Neal A. Palmer, Joseph G. Kosciw, Emily A. Greytak, and Madeline J. Boesen
5. Supporting LGBT Youth: Comprehensive School Transformation
as Effective Bullying Prevention 75
Sarah Schriber, Stacey S. Horn, Christina Peter, L. Boyd Bellinger, and David Fischer

SECTION II Cutting-Edge Issues on Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity in Schools

6. LGB-Parent Families and the School Context 99
Abbie E. Goldberg
7. Transsexuality and School Education in Brazil 115
Maria Rita de Assis Cesar and Josafá Moreira da Cunha
8. The School-to-Prison Pipeline and the Pipeline Population: The Patterns and Practices of Its Production and Dismantling Possibilities 126
Shannon Snapp and Adela C. Licona
9. Inextricably Linked: The Shared Story of Ethnic Studies and LGBTQ-Inclusive Curriculum 143
Shannon Snapp and Stephen T. Russell

SECTION III Systemic Models of Change: Global Perspectives

10. Teaching About Sexual and Gender Diversity and Challenging Homophobia/Transphobia in the South African School System 165
Finn Reygan
11. Sexual and Gender Minorities and Bullying in Japan 185
Makiko Kasai
12. Changing the School Climate: A Critical Examination of the Policies and Strategies Against Homophobia Adopted in the Province of Quebec, Canada 194
Line Chamberland and Gabrielle Richard

SECTION IV Policy, Organizing, and Advocacy

13. Advocacy to Support Gender Identity Development in Schools in the Face of Organized Backlash 219
David Fischer, L. Boyd Bellinger, Stacey S. Horn, and Shannon L. Sullivan
14. The Shifting Political Winds: LGBT Students, Educational Policy and Politics, and the Dilemmas Confronting Street-Level Bureaucrats 238
Catherine A. Lugg and Jason P. Murphy
15. Enumerated U.S. State Laws: Evidence from Policy Advocacy 255
Stephen T. Russell, Stacey S. Horn, Raymond L. Moddy, Amanda Fields, and Elizabeth Tilley
16. From “Dignity” to “Success”: Using Strategic Communications to Change Policies and Perspectives 272
Ryan Schwartz and Carolyn Laub

SECTION V The Nexus of Research, Practice, and Policy: Systems of Change

17. The Australian Context: Turning Research into Policies, Policies into Research 289
Tiffany Jones and Lynne Hillier
18. The Use of Research in Policy and Advocacy for Creating Safe Schools for LGBTQ Students 310
Carolyn Laub and Hilary Burdge
19. Sexual Diversity in Spanish Schools 330
José Ignacio Pichardo Galán
20. Homophobia, Schooling, and the Italian Context 354
Salvatore Ioverno, Nicola Nardelli, Roberto Baiocco, Isabella Orfano, and Vittorio Lingiardi

SECTION VI Conclusion

- 21. Sexual Orientation, Gender Identity, and School: Learning from the Past, Envisioning the Future 377
Stacey S. Horn and Stephen T. Russell

Index 391

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

For educational use and reference only

ภาษาไทย: สำหรับเพื่อการศึกษาและการอ้างอิงเท่านั้น