

TABLE OF CONTENTS

List of Acronyms	1
Chapter 1: Introduction	4
Chapter 2: ESC rights under international law and the role of judicial and quasi-judicial bodies	10
I. Progress towards a global recognition of the justiciability of ESC rights	10
1. The justiciability of ESC rights	10
2. Litigating ESC rights	17
3. Dismantling prejudices against the justiciability of ESC rights	18
II. From justiciability to access to justice	24
1. The right to an effective remedy and reparation for violations of ESC rights under international law	24
2. The position of ESC rights in the domestic legal framework	28
3. The role of the judiciary in the protection of ESC rights	31
III. Identifying breaches of international obligations of States pertaining to ESC rights	32
1. State obligations stemming from international law	33
a) General obligations	34
i) Immediate obligations, non-retrogression	36
ii) Obligations of progressive realization	38
iii) Core content obligations	40

iv) Non-discrimination and equality	46
b) Specific obligations	53
i) The obligation to respect	57
ii) The obligation to protect	59
iii) The obligation to fulfill	61
iv) Extraterritorial obligations of States in the area of ESC rights	64
2. Violations of ESC rights under international law	68
a) Violations through actions of States	72
i) Forcible evictions and the right to adequate housing	72
ii) Right to take part in cultural life	74
iii) Right to education	75
iv) Right to food	75
v) Right to health	75
vi) Right to benefit from the protection of the moral and material interests resulting from any scientific, literary or artistic production	76
vii) Right to social security	76
viii) Right to water	77
ix) Right to work	78
b) Other features of violations	78
Chapter 3: Initiating judicial proceedings - Making the case	80

I. Strategic considerations around litigation	81
1. Providing victims/clients with information about rights and remedies	81
2. Choosing the forum	85
II. Procedural aspects	86
1. Standing	86
a) The role of parties	91
2. Other procedural challenges	92
a) Material accessibility of judicial and quasi-judicial bodies	95
b) Important institutional actors in litigation and in ensuring victims' access to justice	100
i) Ombudspersons	101
ii) National Human Rights Commissions	101
3. Issues around the rules of evidence	102
a) ESC rights litigation and the burden of proof	106
b) Establishing violations in cases with resource implications	108
c) Useful tools and allies in producing evidence	111
Chapter 4: Beyond constitutional remedies - Exploring various jurisdictions	114
I. Introduction	114
II. Constitutional actions	115
III. Civil courts and the relevance of private law for ESC rights	121

1. Family law matters	123
2. Labour law	125
3. Tort law (common law and statutory law)	139
IV. Criminal courts	144
V. Administrative courts	145
VI. Children's/Juvenile courts	147
VII. Environmental law	151
VIII. International remedies	158
Chapter 5: Standards and techniques of review in domestic adjudication of ESC rights	166
I. Reviewing general constitutional principles	167
1. Legitimate expectations	168
2. Non-retroactivity of the law	171
II. Non-discrimination and equality	173
1. Cases concerning discrimination against persons with disabilities	174
2. Case concerning gender discrimination	180
3. Case dealing with substantive equality	181
4. Cases concerning discrimination on the ground of sexual orientation and gender identity	184
5. Cases concerning discrimination against non-nationals/migrants	187
III. Reasonableness	191

1. Reasonableness in ESC rights litigation	191
2. Application of the reasonableness test – Examples of variations in different jurisdictions	193
IV. Proportionality	200
V. Procedural fairness and due process of law	203
VI. Human dignity	206
VII. Minimum level of existence (Existenzminimum)	207
VIII. Margin of appreciation	210
Chapter 6: Remedies and enforcement of decisions	214
I. Various types of remedies	215
1. Avoiding irreparable harm	215
2. Types of remedies	217
II. Enforcement of decisions and monitoring	223
1. Recourse in cases of non-compliance with judicial decisions	224
2. Monitoring of the implementation of court orders	227
Annex 1: List of cases	232
Annex 2: Toolbox	245
Annex 3: The three Maastricht expert documents	262