
Contents

List of contributors	vii
Preface	xiv
PART I INTRODUCTION
1 Introduction to the Research Handbook on International Abortion Law Mary Ziegler	2
PART II HISTORIES OF LIBERALIZATION
2 Health and heredity: abortion reform in Sweden in the 1930s and 1940s Lena Lennerhed	22
3 Before Roe and Morgentaler : a comparative history of abortion politics in the US and Canada from 1800 to 1970 Kelly Gordon and Paul Saurette	39
4 Unfinished business: the feminist legal framework for abortion and ongoing struggle for reproductive justice in South Africa Susanne M. Klausen	61
PART III THE PROMISE AND LIMITS OF DECRIMINALIZATION
5 Abortion law reform in Malawi: a case study in stakeholder engagement, public education, and human rights advocacy Godfrey Dalitso Kangaude, Chispine Gwalawala Sibande, Susan Deller Ross, and Michelle Xiqo Liu	82
6 Abortion law in Thailand: a big step forward? Ronmakorn Bunnée	103
7 Abortion in Australia: law, policy, and the advancement of reproductive rights Ronli Sifris	124
PART IV ABORTION IN POPULAR POLITICS
8 Access to abortion: comparative public policy in France and the United States Jennifer Merchant	142
9 The transformation of abortion law in China Ruby Lai Yuen Shan	160

10	Abortion and federalism: the Australian example Kate Gleeson	181
11	Israel's abortion law and the paradox of a rightless access to pregnancy terminations Noya Rimalt	202
PART V MOVEMENTS AGAINST ABORTION
12	Abortion politics in Brazil: backlash and the antiabortion field renewal Marta R. de Assis Machado	222
13	The international pro-life movement Daniel K. Williams	243
14	Abortion law and illiberal courts: spotlight on Poland and Hungary Agnieszka Bieñ-Kacala and Tímea Drinóczi	263
PART VI RACE, SEX, RELIGION
15	Enhancing reproductive justice transnationally: an equality-based approach to sex-selective abortion laws in India Sital Kalantry and Meher Dev	284
16	Abortion, law, and health in the Arab world Irene Maffi and Liv Tonnesen	303
17	Abortion in Ecuador: overview of a collective struggle Cristina Burneo Salazar	321
PART VII THE ROLE OF INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS
18	Beyond abortion decriminalization: human rights perspectives on the role of law in creating enabling environments for abortion access Raya K. Shah and Jihan Jacob	343
19	Abortion law in Europe: the promise and pitfalls of human rights and transnational trade law in the face of criminalization with exceptions Lucía Berro Pizarossa, Tamara Hervej, and Anniek de Ruijter	374
20	Engendering democracy and rights: the legalization of abortion in Argentina Alisia Ely Yamin and Agustina Ramón Michel	394
21	Abortion, reform, and rights: tales from a small island Fiona de Londras	420
	Index	440