

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION .....	1
I. INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS LAW AND INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAW IN ARMED CONFLICT: LEGAL SOURCES, PRINCIPLES AND ACTORS .....	4
A. Sources of international human rights law and international humanitarian law .....	7
B. Principles of international human rights law and international humanitarian law .....	14
C. Duty bearers in international human rights law and international humanitarian law .....	21
II. REQUIREMENTS, LIMITATIONS AND EFFECTS OF THE CONCURRENT APPLICABILITY OF INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS LAW AND INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAW IN ARMED CONFLICT .....	32
A. Armed conflict as the trigger .....	33
B. Territory and applicability of international human rights law and international humanitarian law .....	42
C. Limitations on the application of international human rights law and international humanitarian law protections .....	46
D. Concurrent application and the principle of lex specialis ....	54
III. ACCOUNTABILITY AND THE RIGHTS OF VICTIMS .....	70
A. State responsibility for violations of international human rights law and international humanitarian law .....	72
B. Individual responsibility for violations of international human rights law and international humanitarian law .....	74
C. Victims' rights with respect to international crimes .....	87
D. Other forms of justice .....	90

IV. APPLICATION OF INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS LAW AND INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAW BY THE UNITED NATIONS .....	92
A. The General Assembly.....	93
B. The Security Council.....	96
C. The United Nations Secretary-General.....	100
D. The Human Rights Council.....	102
E. The Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights.....	104
F. Treaty bodies and special procedures.....	106
G. Human rights components of United Nations peacekeeping missions.....	112
H. Commissions of inquiry and fact-finding missions.....	113
CONCLUSION .....	117

สำหรับเพื่อการศึกษาวิจัยเท่านั้น
For educational use and reference only