

Table of Contents

Research Team	iii
Forward	iv
Introduction	1
Karen Communities in the Area of the Bhumibol Reservoir Inflow Augmentation Project	4
The “Co-production of Knowledge” Principle and Data Collection Method	6
The Mae Ngao Karen Community	16
• The Location of Mae Ngao Village	16
• Population	21
• Economic Development and Livelihoods	21
• The Ngao-Yuam River Ecosystems	26
• Sub-ecosystems of the Ngao-Yuam River	30
• Tools for Catching Aquatic Animals	58
• Forest Areas and Forest Resource Utilization	67
• Economic Value and Income	70
• Afterword	76

The Mae Ngud Karen Community	77
• The Location of Mae Ngud Village	77
• “ Ta Chae Pha Forest ” Sacred Area	80
• Changes to the Mae Ngud Stream	82
• The Management of Mae Ngud Stream by Government Agencies	88
• Bhumibol Dam and the Starting Point of Relocation and Livelihood Changes	98
• Mae Ngud Village at Present	100
• Changes in Livelihoods	102
• Wisdom in Adjusting to New Types of Agriculture	106
• Economic Value and Income	110
• Afterword	115
Summary: The Neglected Karen Livelihoods and Knowledge	117
Bibliography	130
Appendix 1	133
Appendix 2	134