

Contents

	List of illustrations	ix
	Abbreviations	x
1	Introduction	1
2	Contemporary traits of international law	7
	Introduction	7
	The paradigm shift of international law and the international community	10
	Rules in international law	15
	The generalization of values in international law	18
	Complex international legal system	22
3	Human rights law	29
	Historical considerations	29
	The rise of human rights morality	33
	The sacredness of human life	34
	Ethos of love	36
	Universal respect	39
	Human dignity	43
	Human rights (mannabe) universalism	51
	Positivist credential	52
	Self-evidence	53
	Universalizability	54
	Apparent conflicts	58
	Incommensurability	60
	Closing considerations	62

4	The law of armed conflict	64
	Historical background	64
	International humanitarian law: contemporary traits	67
	Geneva Conventions: rules and development	69
	Common Article 3 and the rule of civilian immunity	73
	Principles of necessity and humanity	75
	Contemporary wars and their hostis humani generis	79
	Closing considerations	81
5	The interplay between international humanitarian law and human rights law	84
	Initial thoughts	84
	Relationship to human dignity	89
	Derogation of human rights in times of emergency	92
	Today's assessment by court precedents	97
	The burden of morality	108
	Doctrine of double effect and utilitarianism	119
6	Conclusion	131
	Bibliography	141
	Index	151

สำหรับเพื่อการศึกษาและใช้ทำ
For educational use and reference only