

Contents

Executive summary	v
List of acronyms	x
How this paper is structured	xi
1. Introduction	1
1.1 Purpose	1
1.2 Background and rationale	1
1.3 Scope	2
1.4 Methodology	3
1.5 The specific importance of the RFPA for children	3
1.6 The specific challenges of the RFPA for children	4
2. The international legal framework	7
2.1 Overview	7
2.2 Indivisibility and interdependence of rights	8
2.3 States' obligations to respect, protect and fulfil children's RFPA	9
2.4 Restrictions	10
2.5 Key principles of policing assemblies involving children	12
2.6 Recommendations	14
3. Before an assembly (planning phase)	16
3.1 Build children's capacity – as rights-holders – to exercise their RFPA	16
3.2 Build adults' capacity – as duty-bearers – to empower children	16
3.3 Make information accessible	17
3.4 Remove legal and procedural barriers	18
3.5 Engage and communicate	18
3.6 Design and apply specific measures for children	21
3.7 Build the capacity of LEOs and other relevant officials	22
3.8 Ensure appropriate use of equipment	23
3.9 Recommendations	24
4. During an assembly	27
4.1 Children's perception of LEOs	27
4.2 Surveillance and children's right to privacy	28
4.3 Containment, dispersal of assemblies and use of force and firearms	31
4.4 Arrest and detention of children	37
4.5 Recommendations	39

5. After an assembly (follow-up)	44
5.1 Hold a post-event debriefing	44
5.2 Protect children from threats, reprisals, stigmatization and harassment	44
5.3 Ensure children’s access to justice	45
5.4 Recommendations	47
6. Conclusions and proposals	49
Annexes
Annex 1: Key resources	51
United Nations standards	51
Key guidance on implementing standards	51
General comments of United Nations treaty bodies	52
Concluding observations of United Nations treaty bodies	52
Reports and statements of United Nations special rapporteurs	53
Other United Nations resources	54
Civil society organizations	55
Academic papers	56
Media reports	57
Other	58
Annex 2: Human rights declarations and treaties on children’s RFPA	59
United Nations	59
Regional	59
Annex 3: List of advisory group members	60
Annex 4: Consultation with law enforcement experts	61
Annex 5: Consultations with children and young people	62
Endnotes	63

สำหรับเพื่อการศึกษาและเพื่อการอ้างอิงเท่านั้น
 For educational use and reference only